

A large wooden shelving unit with a central green wall. The unit is divided into several sections. On the left, there are shelves with various items, including a green water bottle and a pink container. The central section has a green wall and a shelf with a white bag. On the right, there are shelves with green and purple items, and a tall cabinet. Below the green wall, there are six colorful baskets (yellow, beige, green, blue, light blue, and grey) with white handles. The floor is made of dark wood planks.
